

USHA Player Development Campaign Pledge Form

The game of handball means a great deal to me. It's a pleasure to do my part to keep the spirit of the game alive with my pledge to the United States Handball Association's Player Development Campaign.

I understand that my contribution is integral to the robust expansion of the game and that my gift to this 5-year campaign will be put to work in the most efficient manner to completely realize the great future envisioned for The Perfect Game.
